

Università degli Studi di Roma Tre, Dipartimento di Scienze Politiche, via Gabriello Chiabrera n° 199, Roma, Sala 4A (IV piano)

22 MAGGIO 2026 h 12.00
THE COMMISSARIATS OF THE HOLY LAND:
ALMS COLLECTION, GLOBAL NETWORKS, AND CATHOLIC CHARITY
IN THE EARLY MODERN ERA

Felicita Tramontana - Roma Tre University

“Reconstructing the Fund-Raising and Financial Networks of the Custody of the Holy Land: the Project HOLYLAB”

Paolo Evangelisti - Universitat de Barcelona

“‘Evangelici Negotiatores’. An Ongoing Study of the Chronicles and Normative Texts of the Friars of the Holy Land (XV-XVIII c.)”

Megan Armstrong - McMaster University

“Communicating the Holy Land: Domingo de Lardizival and his Global Spanish Franciscan Network (1654-1697)”

Karen Melvin - Bates College

“The Unsafe Safe: A Mexico City Theft and its Dire Consequences for the Holy Land”

John-Paul A. Ghobrial - Oxford University

Concluding Remarks

“Connections and Comparisons: Notes on Eastern Christians and Global Alms-Collecting”

Wooden alms box, Netherlands, 1601-1800 Wellcome Science Museum (CC 4.0)

Per qualsiasi informazione, rivolgersi a: felicita.tramontana@uniroma3.it; ricerca.scienzepolitiche@uniroma3.it

Il seminario è organizzato all'interno del progetto ERC Horizon 2020 “HOLYLAB – A global economic organization in the early modern period: The Custody of the Holy Land through its account books (1600-1800)” (Grant Agreement ID 101001857), col patrocinio dell'Istituto Storico Italiano per l'Età Moderna e Contemporanea.